South Boston in Gala Dress Celebrates St. Patrick's and Evacuation Day.

The streets of Boston to-day were holiday attire in honor of two great events in history. One was Evacuation Day, which arouses feelings of American patriotism in the breasts of citizens of all races. The other was the anniversary of St. Patrick, the apostle of Ireland, in whose honor the children of the ancient Irish race held a high festival.

Though the day was cold, the sky was bright and the bracing air made comfortable the rapid marching of the thousands of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and of the Evacuation Day parades, as the two great processions, starting almost at the same hour in different points of the city, moved over their respective routes. It was estimated that more than 300,000 people joined in the celebration.

SOUTH BOSTON IN PATRIOTIC DRESS.
All South Boston, or that portion of it, began at 6 o'clock with the ringing of church bells in South Boston. As the morning wore on, the streets of the district began to take on a holiday appearance. The stores and many of the factories and business establishments were closed for the day and thousands of the people were waiting for the starting of the big parade.

The spirit of the day from the standpoint of the Irish people is one of annual jubilation. It is many years since Boston has had a St. Patrick's Day parade and through the streets to see the marching bands, the floats, and the thousands of people who were gathered along the route.

The day began with religious services in the Catholic churches. At noon the Evacuation Day parade and through the streets to see the marching bands, the floats, and the thousands of people who were gathered along the route.

GRAFT EXPOSED IN FRIAR LANDS

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The minority of the House committee on inquiry of facts relating to the committee's investigation of the sale of war loans in the Philippines made public today, contains sensational allegations concerning sales and leases to United States government officials and employees.

E. L. Worcester, nephew of Dean C. Worcester, secretary of the Interior of the Philippine government the subject of general interest. The Philippine, and other officials, is plainly stated that the report also bears out the charges of deaths in the friar lands. The plainly stated in the report, are benediction of the alleged "graft" on the part of American officials.

"Considering these astounding facts, it is difficult to escape the conclusion that the land laws of the Philippines are being evaded in the most shameless manner."

The testimony says that the practice of soliciting and selling and leasing public lands to private individuals and companies is a policy of the Philippine government. Practically all the land in the Philippines is owned by the Philippine government. Private land is owned by private companies and private individuals. The Philippine government has been selling and leasing public lands to private individuals and companies for many years. ARGUMENTS IN FERNALD TRIAL

PLIMOUTH, March 17.—Final arguments in the trial of Charles P. Fernald for second degree murder in causing the death of Joseph Heller, were heard today. Attorney H. H. Baker for the defense contended the entire morning session. District Attorney Heller closed for the State, taking the afternoon session. Judge Quinn will charge the jury tomorrow and they are expected to leave the case by tomorrow noon.

Mr. Baker declared that four verdicts were possible, second degree murder, manslaughter, assault and an acquittal. He added:

"In order to find this defendant guilty of murder in the second degree, or of manslaughter, the jury must find a reasonable doubt that Charles P. Fernald did strike him a blow with a billiard cue, let us look at the medical testimony. We have got to give it weight in this case. Every man who has testified in regard to the wound on Heller's head has told you that the wound was a sharp cut, not a bruise made with a sharp instrument. The report of the medical examiner said this: 'It is probable that such a wound could have been made with a billiard cue. It is not probable that a blow from a cue would have caused the skull to be made anything but a clean cut wound.'"

IRISH SOCIETY NAMES BOARD

The 17th annual meeting of the Charitable Irish Society of Boston was held at noon today at Young Hotel. There was a large attendance of members.

President John H. Dore, in the course of his address, reviewed his year of office. He told of the great growth of the membership of the society during the past year, which now stands at the highest figure in the history of the organization.

William A. Murphy, who was private secretary to Governor Dineen, and William McGowan of New York, will respond to the orator at the meeting of the Irish Society of Providence at the Hotel de Ville, Providence, on Saturday night.

MISS HOOPER TO WED ON APRIL 5

Back Bay society, or the young men who constitute the Boston dining set, are much interested in the increase of which Miss Hooper will give tonight at Delmonico's in New York. It will be the first well spread as a single man with the guests will be young men who are prominent in the "sport" circles of the city.

She is the daughter of the late Robert C. Hooper and a great granddaughter of Frederick H. Ames of Boston. Just what her wealth is has never been ascertained, but her fortune is big enough to give her a place in the ranks of multi-millionaires. Both her parents are dead and her mother left a vast estate to trust for her. But a recent estate set distributed through a court ruling that the trust was not to hold, and so Miss Hooper can draw upon her wealth at will.

She is a fair-haired slip of a girl and just out of her teens. Her beauty is of a delicate type, and she was designated as one of the "daintiest" of recent seasons. Her engagement to Mr. Brown was announced last January, and since it became known that Miss Hooper was affianced her best of friends have all sought to have her for a guest during the few remaining days of her girlhood. Welcomed by numerous and social attractions, she recently fled from Boston to Manchester by the new passenger line.

It is understood in society circles that she will have as elaborate a trousseau as ever, and her best of friends have all sought to have her for a guest during the few remaining days of her girlhood. Welcomed by numerous and social attractions, she recently fled from Boston to Manchester by the new passenger line.

Spring Stock Celebrated Fashion Clothes

We sell Rosenberg Bros. Fashion Clothes the year round for $22.00, $25.00, $27.50, $30.00, $35.00, $37.50 and $40.00. On account of the big business we do at regular prices our buyer was favored by these celebrated clothing manufacturers with their entire Spring stock on hand, last Monday, March 13th, when he made a special trip to Rochester, where the finest clothing in the world is made.

There is positively no other store in Boston offering men's new Spring suits at the low prices quoted in this sale. This is absolutely the only sale of its kind and affords men the unusual opportunity of wearing one of the finest brands of clothing in the world at a price that under no circumstances can be duplicated during the early part of the season. Fashion Clothes are true to their name and have long held a national fame for the perfection of fit, excellence of style, unsurpassable quality and high grade workmanship. New York sets the style for this country, and in New York, Fashion Clothes are so popular that they form the most serious rival of the high-priced merchant tailors. For a man can look as well in Fashion Clothes at $25.00 as he can look in a tailor-made suit for $50.00.

Every suit made by Rosenberg Bros. is tailored as fine as the finest custom made suit. Every suit represents one of the new spring, 1911, newest ideas. Every suit is right up to the minute in style. All the latest two and three-button coats in different lengths to suit men of different heights. Soft or tight roll coats—short or long lapels. One of the many great features of this sale is a special showing of the new English style coats. The new width trousers are also shown in straight and turn-up styles.

A WORD ABOUT MATERIALS—Only the finest imported and American woolsens, chevrons, serges, Scotchies, thibets, hussines and worsteds are used in Rosenberg Bros. Fashion Clothes, thus insuring maximum service as well as the maximum style. There are conservative styles for conservative men, semi-extreme styles for men who desire something a little out of the ordinary, and extreme styles for young men. The new plain colorings and colored effects are simply wonderful—greys, browns, tans, stripes and plaids, totally different from anything ever shown before. Also the best showing of plain blacks and blues and fancy blues in Boston. The workmanship of the Rosenberg suit is wonderful. Not only is the suit outwardly perfect, but on examination of the lining you will note that the same care has been taken to insure everything of the best. Some of the suits are silk lined, others serge lined and others alpaca lined.

The last year has been a year for the people of Ireland in a year of steady and sustained progress. Repeated attempts were made to break the unity of the Irish national movement and the effect was to weld it more closely together. But all these attempts have failed to do so. Ireland has remained united and her people leaders with commensurate ability and loyalty. And, by the example before the divided world, the new Irish Republic of a united nation at one with its kind has been free to show and exert national representatives.

The officers whom we find Mr. Redmond's friends believe to be the best of the Irish are carried by a mislaid idea of duty for all purposes and may be the best of only in one way. They are not so English as we are, and they are not so Irish as we are. They are, in reality, the best of British party men, who are looking to improve the position of the British Empire by a more complete adoption of the British system of government. They are the best of British party men, who are looking to improve the position of the British Empire by a more complete adoption of the British system of government.

PLAYER-PIANOS

We are figuring to sell you a player-piano of RELIABLE QUALITY at a lower price than any other house in Boston. Now we can do it by manufacturing our own pianos and our own player-action and meeting the buyer on ROCK BOTTOM.

Inspect our offerings. We show some other makes of new player-pianos as low as $300. Easy installment terms. Remember, we offer to the humblest buyer exactly the same in documents we offer to the most exacting expert. Established 1863, always reliable. If you cannot call, write; but do not miss this opportunity to get a genuine bargain in a really reliable player-piano.
